How to Edit and Delete Bookmarks in Safari

Once you've got bookmarks saved in Safari, you can edit or delete them by following these steps:
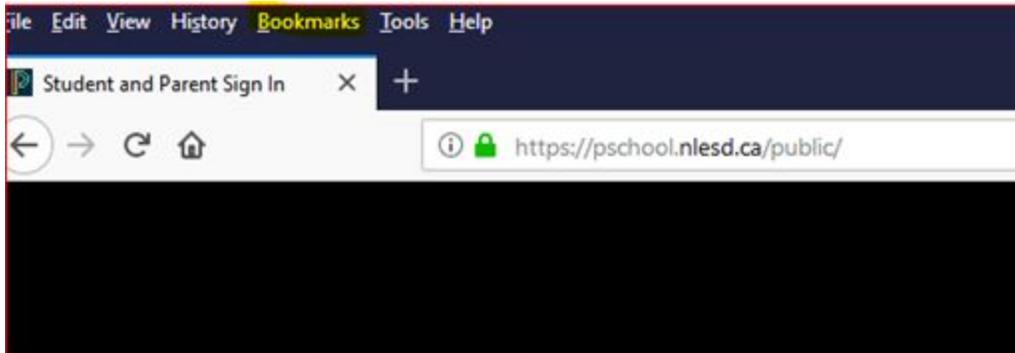

1. Open the bookmarks menu by tapping the book icon. (the icon that looks like a box with an arrow coming out of it).

2. Tap Edit.

3. When you do this, you'll have four choices:
    - Delete bookmarks—To delete a bookmark, tap the red circle to the left of the bookmark. When the Delete button appears at the far right, tap that to delete it.
    - Edit bookmarks—To edit the name, website address, or folder that a bookmark is stored in, tap the bookmark itself. This takes you to the same screen as when you added the bookmark.
    - Re-order bookmarks—To change the order of your bookmarks, tap and hold the icon that looks like three horizontal lines to the right of the bookmark. When you do this, it lifts up a bit. Drag the bookmark to a new location.
    - Create a new folder—To create a new folder in which you can store bookmarks, tap New Folder, give it a name, and choose a location for that folder to live. Tap the Done key on the keyboard to save your new folder.

4. When you've completed whatever changes you want to make, tap the Done button.
